

The Book of Isaiah

Chapters 53-59

(Read 53:1-12) What is the meaning of the 4th Servant Song (Note 52:13-53:12)

(Read Notes 53:1, 53:2, 53:4, 53:5, 53:6, 53:7, 53:8, 53:9, 53:10, 53:11, 53:12)

What does Chapter 54 attend to? (Note 54:1-17)

(Read 54:17) Are we servants of the Lord? (Note 54:17)

(Read 55:1-2) Do these passages foreshadow the heavenly banquet? (Note 55:1-2)

Read 55:3-5 how can this be an everlasting covenant? Note 55:3-5

Why are chapters 56:1–66:24 considered third Isaiah? (Note 56:1-66:24)

(Read 56:3-8) Does salvation reach those who were formally outside the covenant? (Note 56:3-8)

(Read 56:7) What is the holy mountain? (Note 56:7)

After the return from Babylon, did Judah remain faithful to God's commands? (Note 57:3-13)

(Read 57:5) What is meant by this passage? (Note 57:5)

(Read 57:19) What is the blessing of the covenant for those reconciled with God? (Note 57:19)

What is religious hypocrisy? (Note 58:1-14)

(Read 58:1-6) What is sack cloth and ashes? (Note 58:5)

(Read 58:7-9) Can you love God without loving neighbor? (Note 58:7)

(Read 59:1-2) What does chapter 59 address? Why does the Lord not answer the prayers of his people? (Note 59:1-21, Note 59:2)

(Read 59:7-8) Can peace be possessed without adhering to a moral code? (Note 59:7-8)

(Read 59:18) Are you a judged based on your works? (Note 59:18)

(Read 59:20-21) Is the new covenant available to those who turn from transgressions? (Note 59:20-21)